There were no services at the Christian church on Sunday last. Elder Ebert was absent, attending State meeting at Ionia.

Paw Paw boasts of having the best, the largest and the smallest school ma'am in the county. Who contests either of the claims?

We call the attention of the ladies to the new advertisement of Mrs. H. R. Odell, of new fall and winter styles of millinery goods.

Rev. James Goodman will preach Sunday a. m. in the First Baptist church, and in the afternoon at 2:30 in the Baptist church at Lawton.

Wynn Fisk, of Ash Hill, Mo., formerly of Alpena, writes that he is pleased with the business outlook in his new location. He is, of course, in the lumber business.

A note from Frank Rawson, renewing his subscription to the NORTHERNER, states that the weather there is as pleasant as spring. Frank is on the Colorado Springs police force.

The Dyckman House will soon be ready for occupation. It is now a credit to the town. Mr. Longwell is building a new brick barn just in rear of the hotel, on the site of the old barn.

Hon. J. C. Burrows will speak at Paw Paw, on Friday, Oct. 6th, at Decatur, on Monday, Oct. 9th, at Bangor, on Friday, Oct. 20th. These will all be afternoon meetings, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Franklin Mighell, Esq., of Jericho, Ill., a relative of "Dora" Vallean, made us a pleasant call on Tuesday last. "Dora" and his wife are going to Illinois, Nebraska and Dakota on a visit, in a short time.

John Galligan, Esq., brother of our Fat Justice, has received the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Kalamazoo county. John is a good fellow and will make a strong pull. We are sorry he is a Democrat though.

The jury, recently impaneled in the railroad cases, awarded damages for right of way, as follows: Rufus Hyde $300, R. W. Vaughn $300, Chas. W. Hilliard $100. The verdict of the jury was confirmed by the court.

Three boys from Bloomingdale, Stafford, Shattuck and Merrifield, were brought before Esq. Galligan, a few days since, charged with trespass on a melon patch, owned by Mr. E. V. Haydon. Shattuck was discharged, there being no evidence against him, Stafford was acquitted, Merrifield convicted and fined $10 and costs, or 30 days in jail. He went to jail.

Col. H. P. McFarlin has bought him a yoke of oxen.

Frank Butterfield and wife, of Waverly have returned from Iowa.

Lute Rogers, of Waverly, and his wife have parted—for a week only.

We go to press this week, on Thursday morning, so as to give the boys and ourselves an opportunity to go to the Fair.

On Saturday night last, Mr. John Walker received a telegram from Dakota, that his son Samuel was very sick and not expected to live. Mrs. Walker at once went to him. Advice received on Tuesday, state that he is no better.

The Democrats and Greenbackers of Berrien county hold their convention on the 9th, at the same hour and place.—Paw Paw Courier. Preparatory of course to celebrating their unholy nuptials. Well, no matter, it will be a barren union.

The new iron bridge across the Paw Paw river, that was to have been completed by the 26th inst., has not yet put in an appearance. It is extremely annoying, and a great inconvenience to our citizens to be compelled to drive through the river.

If any one will take the trouble to rise early enough in the morning, about 5 o'clock, they may see in the east, just above the horizon, a brilliant comet. It is one of the finest of those celestial wanderers that has been visible for many years.

A quack in St. Louis, Mo., asks us to do $20 worth of advertising for him, and take our pay in what he terms "Marriage Guides," a worthless catch-penny pamphlet. We respectfully decline his munificent offer. Any one who invests in his marriage guide, will exemplify the adage that "A fool and his money are soon parted."

The Hotel Man and the Mill Man combined against the Hog. Only one round was fought which resulted in favor of the Hog, both the H. M. and the M. M. being brought to grass easy. The Hog becoming angry, made a charge and drove the enemy's combined forces ignominiously from the field. Photographs of the Hog on sale at Central Market. For further particulars, enquire of Dansdon and Shelby.

In the last issue of this paper, we reported that George D. Boyce, of Porter, had taken eight premiums at the State Fair at Jackson. That was the record up to date, but at the close of the fair he stood credited with twenty-one. He exhibited nothing but swine. He has the Berkshire, Essex and Suffolks. At our State Fair, the Ohio State Fair at Columbus, and the Tri-State Fair at Toledo, he took between $600 and $700 in premiums. Profitable hogs.

When the Commissioner of Pensions receives an affidavit, he frequently writes to some Federal officer to know the character of the affiant. A few days since Postmaster L. C. Woodman, of this village, received such an inquiry concerning the moral status of Surgeon L. C. Woodman of this village. We doubt not that the Postmaster gave the Doctor a good character. Well he might, for no one knows better than he that he is worthy of it.
